

Into the Void

The sun is setting slowly the city lights are glowing I sit and watch it all
heading into the void

Heading into the void
into the glowing darkness
feel the presence of power
I feel I belong here

I meditate on a hillside
I feel the universe the space is all around me
heading into the void

Heading into the void
into the glowing darkness
feel the presence of power
I feel I belong here

Peace is all around
I hear a humming sound
I'm floating away
to a sunny day

Light and shadows pass through a looking glass universe explode spreading all the notes

The sun is rising slowly the city lights are fading
I sit and watch it all

feel the presence of power
I feel I belong here

feel the presence of power
I feel I belong here
