

Plane of Mischief

I got to stroll the urban desert the lights are dim as the rain keeps falling down on me and aimless souls will find no place to rest upon they move around behind their bars as they sing out loud to me

We love you madly
we need you to play our game we haunt you gladly we'll kill you - welcome to the plane of mischief

I sit and watch the human theater the lights are dim as the curtain's rolling up to reveal the clueless actors play their roles in perfect dismay they move around the scene and dance as they sing out loud to me

We love you madly
we need you to play our game
we haunt you gladly
we'll kill you - welcome to the plane of mischief

I lay me down to take a sleeping peep the lights are dim and the blinds are firmly sealed the aimless thoughts are swirling round and round in my head they move around in a dark parade as they sing out loud to me

We love you madly
we need you to play our game
we haunt you gladly
we'll kill you - welcome to the plane of mischief

We love you madly
we haunt you gladly
we'll kill you - welcome to the plane of mis..... welcome to the plane of mis..... welcome to the plane of mischief
